TEXAS SOCIETY DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN COLONISTS

2012 PATRIOTIC EDUCATION COMMITTEE "DESIGN A STAMP" CONTEST

CONTEST INSTRUCTIONS:

The contest is open to students in grades 3, 4, and 5.

Design a stamp that depicts children in Colonial America (1607-1776) doing their daily chores and write a brief description of it on the lines provided below.

The exact size of the stamp should be 5 x 7 inches drawn in the center of a standard sheet of 8 ½ X 11 white typing/copy paper. Only original artwork is accepted for judging. The entry should be placed in a plastic sheet protector.

The entry must follow the instructions and have a legibly printed contest registration form attached to the reverse side. Failure to follow all directions could result in disqualification.

Send the entries to State Chairman, Ms. Ruth Ann Edney, 24443 Buck Creek, San Antonio, TX 78255-2293; to be received on or before December 31, 2012. Please plan accordingly for school closings due to weather and other situations.

EACH STATE MAY SEND ONLY ONE ENTRY PER GRADE LEVEL TO THE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN.
